  - b) Be responsible for ensuring the welfare, health, and safety of everyone in their Participant Group
- 6.2 The relevant Scouting residential ratios for each Participant Group must be adhered to and the Organisers advise each Participant Group to have a minimum of 3 Unit Leaders. Unit Leaders should be kept to a minimum to ensure maximum numbers of Participants on site.
- 6.3 Failure by Participant Groups, Participants, Unit Leaders, or Staff Volunteers to abide by the rules of The Scout Association or the event-specific rules will be dealt with by the Organisers under the rules of The Scout Association.
- 6.4 The Organisers reserve the right to remove individuals and/or Units from the event at any point throughout the event to ensure the health, safety or wellbeing of others at the Event. Any and all costs involved with an individual and/or unit being removed from the event are the responsibility of the party being removed and the Event Organisers responsibility does not extend beyond a basic duty of care in such cases.
- 6.5 In cases where an individual or unit's access is removed from the event due to the above the event will not issue a part or full refund.
- 6.6 Further event-specific rules/policies, as published on the Get In 2026 website, will also apply for the safety, wellbeing and efficient functioning of the Event at the discretion of the Organisers.

General Terms and Conditions

7. Cancellation and Refund Policy

- 7.1 All deposits are non-refundable.
- 7.2 Bookings are not refundable and all further instalments will remain due and payable.
- 7.3 Participant Groups may exchange one Participant for another, provided their overall numbers are unaffected.
- 7.4 Please be assured that the Organisers will remain vigilant to global developments and will make thoughtful and timely decisions with the best interests of all parties at their heart.
- 7.5 If the Organisers need to cancel the Event due to circumstances beyond their control, money will be refunded to the extent that it has not already been spent or committed to be spent. This is likely to mean that, in some circumstances, no Event Fees or Staff Fees can be refunded. Such circumstances may include but are not limited to an outbreak of a public health concern or severe weather event.
